“A TIME OF RENEWAL”

Volume 53, Issue 7 - June/July 2012—Moderator: Rev. Rick Elsey, Treasurer: Suzanne Gagneur

If you want to change a society, you must win the hearts and minds of its youth.

Although for a terrible cause, the Nazis took this principle to heart with their “Hitler Youth Movement” and the Communists of the Soviet Union did likewise with their “Pioneer” programs. They understood that if you could win the youth; you could change the world.

This premise is still true today. As a result, the world wants the hearts and minds of our kids. It throws everything at them on a daily basis. They are bombarded from all angles with secular, humanist, atheist, hedonist, and godless ideas and beliefs.

It’s our duty as parents, church leaders, and Christians to train our children in the ways of God. We must pray for them and protect them the best we can. It begins with their family. Our churches must endeavor to supplement and compliment the effort at home.

Just one method that is very effective at sparking at least an interest for the things of God among our kids is Vacation Bible School. Every year, thousands of kids attend VBS and hear about God’s love for them. This year is no exception.

Our MBA churches are currently right in the middle of VBS season. It’s one of my favorite times of the year. I am privileged to visit our churches and see the smile on their faces and witness scores of volunteers who are investing into the lives of these precious children with their efforts. Each church is unique and each church has a different role to play.

I want to take time to commend all of our VBS workers. Thank You! Please know your efforts are not in vain. Every year we hear about children who are saved and sometimes their parents start coming to church as well. If just one person’s life is changed, it’s worth it all. In fact, I myself am a product of VBS. I was saved after listening to an explanation of the Gospel in VBS at my home church in July 1968 because somebody cared. What you are doing matters! It does make a difference!

So keep it up soldiers of the cross!

Blessings, Dale
