“Serving Together”

Volume 60, Issue 5– September 2017 —Moderator: David Buffaloe, Treasurer: Suz Gagneur

It’s been interesting observing our culture in reference to the hurricane stories dominating the news. Some from the extreme left, say it’s all about “Global Warming”. Some from the extreme right say it’s a sure “Sign of the End Times”.

I have my opinions on both of those subjects, but suffice it to say the one thing that can be agreed upon is that these disasters result in hurting people who need help.

They’re saying Harvey was the worst one ever in terms of flooding and as I write this, they’re saying Irma is the biggest one ever in terms of wind and magnitude.

Our SBC, TBC and your Maury Association are making plans to go and help. The one thing I would suggest though is to understand that these disasters are in the “Long Term” category. Much like Katrina, volunteers to help hurting people are going to be needed for months if not years to come.

Please refer to our website www.maurybaptist.org for updates and to the TBC Disaster relief for additional information as well; www.tndisasterrelief.org. For now, we’re planning on taking teams down after command structures are in place and expect to form teams for rebuild in months and years to come. We’re having a Disaster Relief training at Rock Springs Baptist on October 14.

In the meantime, please help us get the word out. Often, people want to go and help but can’t get off work, ignore responsibilities, etc. However, with this being a long-term response, they have the unique opportunity to plan in advance time away. It would help a lot though if they contacted our MBA office to inform us of their availability so we can make plans and offer opportunities for them to get the necessary training.

On another note, our Annual Meeting is being held this year at Riverview Baptist in Columbia on Tuesday, October 24. The fellowship meal is at 5:30 pm with a business session at 6:15 pm. Worship will be held at 7 pm with Richard VanCleave, pastor at Rock Springs, bringing our message and Riverview Baptist leading in music. Hope you can come. If you have questions, please contact the MBA office.

On a sad note, we remember the family of Ines Dugger in her passing on September 7. She served on the MBA Ex. Board for many, many years. She will be missed.

Blessings, Dale Ledbetter
